

RECKLESS LOVE

Without even looking
At what was inside my heart
You only aimed for my body
I wouldn't have even given you the time

I had my own ideas
About love and about honor
Maybe I was wrong sometimes
But I still had all my fears

PRE CHORUS

You know, it's not easy
I wanted something real
Not just hanging by a thread
Not a story for one night

You know, I can be fragile
Even if you can't see it
I wanted a true love story
But you made too many mistakes

CHORUS

*Reckless love
You hurt me once again
You only cared about fulfilling
All your unspoken desires*

*Reckless love
You hurt me once again
If only I had known
I would've left this story in the past*

Far from emotions
You were only chasing one thing
The adrenaline, the thrill
Playing with fire, craving the sting

And you don't care if it breaks me
You just want me tangled in your sheets
But time has shown me what's real
When you're in her arms
Does her heart beat for you

*Reckless love
You hurt me once again
You only cared about fulfilling
All your unspoken desires*

*Reckless love
You hurt me once again
If only I had known
I would've left this story in the past*

BRIDGE

You don't love me for who I am
You just love a sexy image
That can spice up your nights
You don't love me for who I am

In a flash, I took back my life
Everything is crystal clear tonight
You don't love me for who I am
So I'm running into the night

CHORUS

*Reckless love
You hurt me once again
You only cared about fulfilling
All your unspoken desires*

*Reckless love
You hurt me once again
If only I had known
I would've left this story in the past*

OUTRO

I'm not just a body,
I have a heart made of gold,
But you need to see it,
And truly want it to hold.

I'm not just a body,
I have a heart made of gold,
But love only stays strong,
If you choose to make it whole.
